Miami, Florida, October 11, 2005...BR-111™, a leading manufacturer of exotic hardwood flooring, celebrated its 15th anniversary and grand opening with upscale style and panache Saturday, October 8, 2005 at their new corporate headquarters situated just outside Miami, Florida.

Over 150 gala attendees were treated to gourmet dining and fine spirits as the company welcomed friends and business associates to tour the new facility. With over 75,000 square feet under roof, offices radiate from a unique circular floor plan, featuring a centrally located fishpond and soaring industrial style ceilings. The dynamic contemporary décor includes glass and brushed metal accents complemented by exquisite exotic hardwood flooring throughout.

“We were thrilled to have so many close friends and associates join us for the grand opening celebration,” said Ricardo Moraes, President of BR-111. “The new offices are truly a work of art, and we were flattered to have guests attend from throughout the U.S. and as far away as Brazil.”

BR-111 extends a special thanks to the following design-build professionals responsible for completing the new BR-111 office and warehouse facility: André Heise, FATO Architects, Juan Riesco, Riesco Architects, Rafael Reyes, U.S. Construction Corporation, Jennifer Corredor, J Design Group.

Celebrating its 15th anniversary, BR-111™ continues to be a leader in the exotic hardwood flooring arena, providing products that are recognized for their beauty, performance and overall value. Exciting new hardwood species and innovative products, ranging from prefinished solids to engineered flooring, are researched and developed annually in an on-going effort to achieve the ultimate level of quality and excellence.
